It's been my experience
that you can
nearly always
enjoy things if
you make up
your mind
firmly that
you will.
